7.3 The Association is not to –

7.3.1 appoint a person who is a member of the committee to any office of the Association to the holder of which there is payable any remuneration by way of salary, fees or allowances; or

7.3.2 pay to any such person any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth, other than the repayment of out-of-pocket expenses.

7.4 An employee or member of the Association may be paid, in good faith –

7.4.1 remuneration in return for services rendered to the Association by a member or for goods supplied to the Association by a member in the ordinary course of business; or

7.4.2 interest at a rate not exceeding the Association's banks maximum borrowing rate at the time the money was lent to the Association by the member; or

7.4.3 a reasonable and proper sum by way of rent for premises let to the Association.

8. ACCOUNTS OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURE

8.1 True accounts are to be kept of –

8.1.1 all money received and expended by the Association and the matter in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes place; and

8.1.2 the property, credits and liabilities of the Association.

8.2 The accounts are to be open to inspection by the members of the Association subject to any reasonable restrictions as to time and manner of inspecting the Association may impose.

8.3 The treasurer of the Association is to keep all general records, accounting books and records of receipts and expenditure connected with the operations and business of the Association in the form and manner the committee directs.

8.4 The accounts, books and records are to be kept at the Association's office or at any other place the committee decides.

9. BANKING AND FINANCE

9.1 The treasurer of the Association, on behalf of the Association, is to –

9.1.1 receive all money paid to the Association; and

9.1.2 immediately after the receipt issue official receipts.

9.2 The committee is to cause to be opened with any bank, building society or credit union the committee selects an account in the name of the Association into which all money received is to be paid as soon as possible after receipt.

9.3 The committee may –

9.3.1 receive from the Association's financial institution the cheques drawn by the Association on any of its accounts with the financial institution; and

9.3.2 release and indemnify the financial institution from and against all claims, actions, suits or demands that may be brought against the financial institution arising directly or indirectly out of those cheques.

9.4 Except with the authority of the committee, a payment of any sum exceeding $250 is not to be made from the funds of the Association otherwise than by cheque drawn or Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) on the Association's account.

9.5 The committee may provide the treasurer with a sum to meet urgent expenditure, subject to any conditions in relation to the use and expenditure the committee may impose.

9.6 Cheques or EFTs of any amount exceeding $250 are not to be drawn on the Association's account except for the payment of expenditure that has been authorised by the committee.

9.7 All cheques, EFTs, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments are to be signed or approved by the treasurer and 1 other member of the Executive Committee or, in his absence, by any other 2 members of the Executive Committee nominated for that purpose.

10 FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year of the Association is the period beginning on 1st July in one year and ending on the 30th June the next following year.

11. AUDITOR

11.1 At each annual general meeting of the Association, the members present are to appoint a person as the auditor of the Association, alternatively they may move a motion to seek for exemption from audit under the current provisions of The Associations Incorporation Act 1964.

11.2 The auditor is to hold office until the annual general meeting next after that at which he or she is appointed, and is eligible for re-appointment.

11.3 The first auditor may be appointed by the committee before the first annual general meeting, and, holds office until the first annual general meeting, unless earlier removed by a resolution of the members at a general meeting, when that meeting may appoint an auditor to act until the first annual general meeting.

11.4 If an appointment is not made at an annual general meeting, the committee is to appoint an auditor for the current financial year of the Association.

11.5 Except as provided in sub-rule \(3\), the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.

11.6 If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor during the course of a financial year of the Association, the committee may appoint a person as the auditor to hold office until the next succeeding annual general meeting.

12. AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS

12.1 The auditor is to examine the accounts of the Association at least once in each financial year of the Association.

12.2 The auditor is to –

12.2.1 certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association; and 12.2.2 report to the members present at the annual general meeting.

12.3 In the report and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor is to state if –

12.3.1 he or she has obtained the required information; and

12.3.2 in his or her opinion, the accounts are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association –

12.3.2.1 according to the information at his or her disposal and the explanations given; and

12.3.2.2 as shown by the books of the Association; and

12.3.2.3 the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.

12.4 The public officer of the Association is to cause to be delivered to the auditor a list of all the accounts, books and records of the Association.

12.5 The auditor may –

12.5.1 have access to the accounts, books, records, vouchers and documents of the Association; and

12.5.2 require from the servants of the Association any information and explanations he or she considers necessary for the performance of the duties as auditor; and

12.5.3 employ persons to assist in investigating the accounts of the Association; and

12.5.4 in relation to the accounts of the Association, examine any member of the committee or any employee or member of the Association.

13. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

13.1 The Association is to hold an annual general meeting each year.

13.2 The annual general meeting is to be held on any day (being not later than 3 months after the close of the financial year of the Association) the committee determines.

13.3 The annual general meeting is to be in addition to any other general meetings that may be held in the same year.

13.4 The notice convening the annual general meeting is to specify the purpose of the meeting.

13.5 The ordinary business of the annual general meeting is to be as follows:

13.5.1 to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting.

13.5.2 to receive from the committee, auditor and officers of the Association reports on the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year.

13.5.3 to elect the officers of the Association and ordinary committee members.

13.5.4 to appoint the auditor and determine his or her remuneration or alternatively move a motion to seek exemption from audit for the financial year as specified under the Association Incorporation Act 1964.

13.5.6 to determine the remuneration of employees for following year.

13.6 The annual general meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with these rules.

14. SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

14.1 The committee may convene a special general meeting of the Association at any time.

14.2 The committee, on the requisition in writing of at least 5 members, may convene a special general meeting of the Association. _

14.3 A requisition for a special general meeting –

14.3.1 is to state the objects of the meeting; and

14.3.2 is to be signed by the the members submitting the requisition; and

14.3.3 is to be deposited at the office of the Association; and

14.3.4 may consist of several documents, each signed by one or more of the requisitioning members.

14.4 If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within 21 days from the day on which a requisition is deposited at the office of the Association, the requisitioning members, or any of them, may convene the meeting within 3 months from the day of the deposit of the requisition.

14.5 A special general meeting convened by requisitioning members is to be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as meetings are convened by the committee.

14.6 All reasonable expenses incurred by requisitioning members in convening a special general meeting are to be refunded by the Association.

15. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

15.1 The public officer of the Association, at least 14 days before the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Association, is to send to all financial members by email a notice.

15.1.1 specifying the place, day and time for the holding of the meeting; and 15.1.2 the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

16. BUSINESS AND QUORUM AT GENERAL MEETINGS

16.1 All business transacted at a general meeting, except the ordinary business of the annual general meeting, is special business.

16.2 Business is not to be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled to vote is present at the time the meeting is considering that business.

16.3 A quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting is 10 members present and entitled to vote.

16.4 If a quorum is not present one hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting, the meeting –

16.4.1 if convened on the requisition of members, is to be dissolved; or

16.4.2 in any other case, is to be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time at the same place.

16.5 If at an adjourned meeting a quorum is not present one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting is to be dissolved.

16.6 The chairperson, by written notice or at the time of the adjournment, may specify another place to which a meeting is to be adjourned.

17. CHAIRMAN

17.1 The president, or in his absence, the senior vice-president, or in the absence of both the president and the senior vice-president, the other vice-president, is to preside as chairperson at every general meeting of the Association.

17.2 If the president and both vice-presidents are absent from a general meeting, the members present are to elect one of their number to preside as chairperson.

18. ADJOURNMENT OF GENERAL MEETINGS

18.1 The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business is to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

18.2 If a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the notice of the adjourned meeting is to be given in the same manner as the notice of the original meeting.

18.3 It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

19. DETERMINATION OF QUESTIONS ARISING AT MEETINGS

19.1 A question arising at a general meeting of the Association is to be determined on a show of hands.

19.2 Unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

20. VOTES

20.1 On any question arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member has one vote only.

20.2 All votes are to be given personally.

20.3 In the case of an equality of voting on a question, the chairperson is entitled to exercise a casting vote.

21. CONDUCT OF POLL

If at a meeting a poll on any question is demanded –

21.1 it is to be taken at that meeting in the manner the chairperson directs; and

21.1.1 the result of the poll is taken to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.

22. WHEN POLL TO BE TAKEN

22.1 A poll that is demanded on the election of a chairperson, or on a question of adjournment, is to be taken immediately.

22.2 A poll that is demanded on any other question is to be taken at any time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson directs.

23. COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

23.1 The affairs of the Association are to be managed by a committee of management constituted as provided in rule 25.

23.2 The committee –

23.2.1 is to control and manage the business and affairs of the Association;
and

23.2.2 may exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the Association, other than those powers and functions that are required by these rules to be exercised by general meetings of members of the Association; and

23.2.3) has power to do anything that appears to the committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Association.

24. OFFICERS OF THE ASSOCIATION

24.1 The officers of the Association are as follows:

24.1.1 a president;

24.1.2 2 vice-presidents;

24.1.3 a treasurer;

24.1.4 a secretary.

24.2 One of the vice-presidents is to be known as the senior vice-president.

24.3 The provisions of rule 26.2, 26.3 and 26.4, so far as they are applicable and with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the election of persons to any of the offices referred to in sub-rule 26.1.

24.4 Each officer of the Association is to hold office until the annual general meeting next after the date of election, and is eligible for re-election.

24.5 If a casual vacancy in any office referred to in sub-rule 24.1 occurs, the committee may appoint one of its members to the vacant office, to hold the office up to and including the conclusion of the annual general meeting next following the date of the appointment.

25. CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMITTEE

25.1 The committee consists of the following members elected at the annual general meeting of the Association in each year:

25.1.1 the officers of the Association;

25.1.2 4 other members.

25.2 An ordinary committee member is to hold office until the annual general meeting next after the date of election and is eligible for re-election.

25.3 If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of ordinary committee member, the committee may appoint a member of the Association to fill the vacancy until the conclusion of the annual general meeting next following the date of the appointment.

26. ELECTION OF THE COMMITTEE

26.1 Nominations of candidates for election as officers of the Association or as ordinary committee members are to be –

26.1.1 made in writing on the prescribed nomination form signed by 2 members of the Association and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the nomination); and

26.1.2 delivered to the public officer of the Association at least 7 days before the date fixed for the holding of the annual general meeting.

26.2 If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the committee –

26.2.1 the candidates nominated are taken to be elected; and

26.2.2 further nominations are to be received at the annual general meeting.

26.3 If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated are taken to be elected.

26.4 If the number of nominations received exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot is to be held.

26.5 The ballot for the election of officers and ordinary committee members is to be conducted at the annual general meeting in the usual manner as directed by the committee.

27. VACATION OF OFFICE

27.1 For the purpose of these rules, the office of an officer of the Association or of an ordinary committee member becomes vacant if the officer or committee member –

27.1.1 dies; or

27.1.2 becomes bankrupt or applies to take or takes advantage of any law relating to bankrupt or insolvent debtors or compounds with his or her creditors, or makes any assignment of his or her estate for their benefit; or

27.1.5 ceases to be resident in the State; or

27.1.6 fails, without leave granted by the committee, to attend 3 consecutive meetings of the committee; or

27.1.7 ceases to be a member of the Association; or

27.1.8 fails to pay all arrears of subscription due, within 14 days after receiving a notice in writing signed by the public officer stating that he or she has ceased to be a financial member of the Association.

28. MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE AND SUBCOMMITTEES

28.1 The committee is to meet at least 6 times per year at any place and time the committee determines.

28.2 Special meetings of the committee may be convened by the president or any 4 of its members.

28.3 Notice is to be given to members of the committee of any special meeting, specifying the general nature of the business to be transacted, and no other business is to be transacted at such a meeting.

28.4 At least 50% of committee members constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a meeting of the committee.

28.5 Business is not to be transacted unless a quorum is present.

28.6 If half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting is to be adjourned to the same place and at the same hour of the same day in the following week unless the meeting was a special meeting in which case it is to be dissolved.

28.7 At a meeting of the committee, the following is to preside:

28.7.1 the president, or in his or her absence the senior vice-president, or in the absence of both the president and the senior vice-president, the other vice-president;

28.7.2 if the president and the 2 vice-presidents are absent, any one of the remaining

28.8 Any question arising at a meeting of the committee or of any subcommittee appointed by the committee is to be determined –

28.8.1 on a show of hands; or

28.8.2 if demanded by a member, by a poll taken in any manner the person presiding at the meeting determines.

28.9 Each member present at a meeting of the committee or of any subcommittee appointed by the committee (including the person presiding at the meeting) is entitled to one vote.

28.10 If there is an equality of votes on any question, the person presiding has a second or casting vote.

28.11 Written notice of each committee meeting is to be served on each member of the committee by –

28.11.1 delivering it at a reasonable time before the meeting; or

28.11.2 sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to his or her usual or last-known address in time to reach him or her in due course of post before the date of the meeting; or 28.11.3 by email within a reasonable time before the meeting.

29. DISCLOSURE OF INTEREST IN CONTRACTS

29.1 A member of the committee who is interested in any contract or arrangement made or proposed to be made with the Association is to disclose the interest –

29.1.1 at the first meeting of the committee at which the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, if the interest then exists; or

29.1.2 in any other case, at the first meeting of the committee after the acquisition of the interest.

29.2 If a member of the committee becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made or entered into, he or she is to disclose the interest at the first meeting of the committee after he or she becomes so interested.

29.3 A member of the committee is not to vote as a member of the committee in respect of any contract or arrangement in which he is interested and any such vote is not to be counted.

30. SUBCOMMITTEES

30.1 The committee may –

30.1.1 appoint a subcommittee from the committee; and

30.1.2 prescribe the powers and functions of that subcommittee.

30.2 The committee may co-opt any person as a member of a subcommittee without voting rights, whether or not the person is a member of the Association.

30.3 A quorum at a meeting of the subcommittee is no fewer than 50% of the appointed members.

30.4 The public officer of the Association is to convene meetings of a subcommittee.

30.5 Written or email notice of each subcommittee meeting is to be served on each member of the subcommittee by –

30.5.1 delivering or transmitting it at a reasonable time before the meeting; or 30.5.2 by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to his or her usual or last-known address, in time to reach him or her in due course of post before the date of the meeting.

31. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

31.1 The president, the vice-presidents, the treasurer and the secretary constitute the executive committee.

31.2 The executive committee may issue instructions to the public officer and the servants of the Association in matters of urgency connected with the management of the affairs of the Association during the period between meetings of the committee.

31.3 The executive committee is to report on any instructions issued under sub-rule 31.2 to the next meeting of the committee.

32. ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION

32.1 The annual subscription payable by members is to be determined at a general Meeting of members held in March each year.

32.2 The annual subscription may be altered by the members by special resolution.

32.3 The annual subscription of a member is due and payable on or before the first day of the financial year of the Association.

33. NOTICES

33.1 A notice may be served by or on behalf of the Association on any member –

33.1.1 personally; or

33.1.2 by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his usual or last-known address; or 33.1.3 by email.

34. EXPULSION OF MEMBERS

34.1 The committee may expel a member from the Association if, in the opinion of the committee, the member is guilty of conduct detrimental to the interests of the Association.

34.2 The expulsion of a member under sub-rule 34.1 does not take effect until whichever of the following is the later date:

34.2.1 the expiration of 14 days after the service on the member of a notice under sub-rule 34.3;

34.2.2 if the member exercises his right of appeal under this rule, the conclusion of the special general meeting convened to hear the appeal.

34.3 If the committee expels a member from the Association, the public officer of the Association, without undue delay, is to cause to be served on the member a notice in writing –

34.3.1 stating that the committee has expelled the member; and

34.3.2 specifying the grounds for the expulsion; and

34.3.3 informing the member of a right to appeal against the expulsion under rule 36.

35. APPEAL AGAINST EXPULSION

35.1 A member may appeal against an expulsion under rule 35 by delivering or sending by post to the public officer of the Association, within 14 days after the service of a notice under rule 34.3, a requisition in writing demanding the convening of a special general meeting for the purpose of hearing the appeal.

35.2 On receipt of a requisition –

35.2.1 the public officer is to immediately notify the committee of its receipt; and

35.2.2 the committee is to cause a special general meeting of members to be held within 21 days after the date on which the requisition is received.

35.3 At a special general meeting convened for the purpose of this rule –

35.3.1 no business other than the question of the expulsion is to be transacted; and

35.3.2 the committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds of the expulsion and the committee's reasons for the expulsion; and

35.3.3 the expelled member is to be given an opportunity to be heard; and

35.3.4 the members present are to vote by secret ballot on the question whether the expulsion should be lifted or confirmed.

35.4 If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the lifting of the expulsion –

35.4.1 the expulsion is to be taken to have been lifted; and

35.4.2 the expelled member is entitled to continue as a member of the Association.

35.5 If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the confirmation of the expulsion –

35.5.1 the expulsion takes effect; and

35.5.2 the expelled member ceases to be a member of the Association.

36. DISPUTES

36.1 A dispute between a member of the Association in the capacity as a member and the Association is to be determined by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Commercial Arbitration Act 1986.

36.2 This rule does not affect the operation of rule 35.

37. SEAL OF ASSOCIATION

37.1 The seal of the Association is to be in the form of a rubber stamp, inscribed with the name of the Association encircling the word "Seal".

37.2 The seal of the Association is not to be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the committee.

37.3 The affixing of the seal is to be attested by the signatures of –

37.3.1 2 members of the committee; or

37.3.2 one member of the committee and the public officer of the Association or any other person the committee may appoint for that purpose.

37.4 Attestation under sub-rule 38.3 is sufficient for all purposes that the seal was affixed by authority of the committee.

37.5 The seal is to remain in the custody of the public officer.

38. WINDING UP

38.1 If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever,

38.2 the surplus (if any) shall not be distributed among the Members of the Association; but

38.2.1 shall be given or transferred to some other Institution, Association or Company having objects similar to the objects of the Association;

38.2.2 and whose Constitution or Memorandum of Association shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their Members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Association by virtue of the provisions of this Constitution.

38.3 Such Institution(s), Association(s) or Company(s) to be determined by the Members of the Association at or before the time of the winding-up or dissolution of the Association; and 38.3.1 in default thereof by application to the Supreme Court of Tasmania for determination.

The above rules were adopted by a two thirds majority of members at a meeting held for the purpose on Wednesday, March 17th 2021.
